

THIS IS YOUR TRIAL

So, what is it?

This Is Your Trial is an award-winning, improvised comedy format show, deriving much of its success from how it interacts with the audience.

They can submit accusations of 'crimes' they've committed against each other at work or otherwise.

Comedians, as lawyers, arguing a selection of the cases, cross-examining the accusers and the accused.

Everyone else is the jury, cheering their verdict of guilt or innocence once all of the hilarious arguments have been heard.

No two trials are ever the same. They are always funny, irreverent and original.

Why book us?

After two years of working from home, we've all missed face-to-face interactions with colleagues and friends in the office and at after-work social events.

We offer you the ideal team-building event where they laugh together, sharing anecdotes and make positive, memorable experiences.

Our Experience

This Is Your Laugh has over ten years' experience performing shows at Xmas parties, away-day activities, annual conferences and networking events for our various clients. We're super confident of delivering exactly what your company needs to bring colleagues and customers together.

How?

- The shows are typically an hour long, but can be adapted to your schedule.
- We come to you or even source a venue wherever you might be.
- We entertain groups of any number between 12 and 200!

Example cases:

When workplace hierarchies are suspended for an evening, 'Simon in accounts' calls out his manager for 'constantly muting herself in Zoom meetings.'

Found guilty of the act of 'sabotage through self-silencing', manager Lilian was sentenced to be court artist for the next case.

Guilty!
Or innocent?

FAQs

Surely it's too expensive for us?

You know your budget. We know our rates are competitive, flexible to your needs.

What if inappropriate grievances are raised or someone feels picked-on?

We pride ourselves on knowing how to read the room and involve people appropriately, always choosing the cases to be heard, with care.

Our considered research and preparation for each event ensures we celebrate all participants and the culture of the company.

How can you reassure us of being able to do this?

We receive accusations before the show starts, providing a reliable filter to avoid controversy. Our performers are deft and sensitive to the dynamics of your company and your guests. No one is put on stage against their will.

It just doesn't make good comedy.

Not everyone has the same sense of humour.

This is true. But because of their years of comedy experience and well-honed improvisation skills, our comedians are able to make jokes that range from outrageous silliness to quick-witted repartee, creating a hysterically funny and hugely enjoyable show for all.

What the press say

"Priceless improvised observations"

 (MIRROR)

"A genuinely inventive, intelligent, comedy creation."

 (SCOTSMAN)

"Freewheelin' show for anyone and everyone..."

 (THE WEST AUSTRALIAN)

What our clients say

"... Some said it was the best Xmas party they'd ever been to. They took the time to investigate the likes/dislikes, funny stories, general demographics of our team and put together a one-off, personalised show that had everyone in stitches, winning over even the most sceptical of our team."

Carly Wood, Office Manager – Skimlinks

"...they only went and blew the bloody doors off!"

Paul Sampson, Vice President - Cuesongs

"We've never had an event like it in terms of originality, laughter and employee engagement. The Trial team expertly curated the show fitting our company culture creating a smart, witty presentation. They even put Priya, our team leader, on trial for her fashion crimes - for which she was sent down! We're still talking about it now."
