

EVERYONE LAUGHING AT YOUR NEXT OFFICE PARTY?

... we will make that happen.

"If this is meant to be a trial, send me down for five to ten!"

THIS IS YOUR TRIAL

Guilty! or Innocent?
YOU decide!

THIS IS YOUR TRIAL

- You submit accusations against colleagues.
- Comedians cross-examine accusers and the accused.
- Everyone else as jury, decides their guilt or innocence.
- No two trials are ever the same.
- Always funny, irreverent and original.

An example case:

"Simon in accounts" called out his manager for "constantly muting herself in Zoom meetings."
Manager, Lilian, found guilty of "sabotage through self-silencing" was sentenced to be court artist for the next case.

PARTICIPATION IS OPTIONAL!

WHAT OUR CLIENTS SAY

"...some said it was the best Xmas party they'd ever been to. Taking time to investigate stories from the office, they gave us a personalised show that had everyone in stitches, winning over even the most sceptical of our team."

Carly Wood, Office Manager - Skimlinks

"We've never had an event like it for originality, laughter and employee engagement. TIYL expertly curated something fitting our company ethos with a smart, witty show. We're still talking about how Priya, my team leader, was on trial for fashion crimes - she was sent down!"
